

YAMPIER SARDINA

BIOGRAPHY

Yampier Sardina Esperón was born in Havana, Cuba, in 1979. He studied at the Fine Arts Elementary School "José Antonio Díaz Peláez" (1995-1997) and the National Academy of Fine Arts "San Alejandro" (1997-2000), both in their hometown. He was subsequently accepted by the prestigious Hudson River School for Landscape in New York. He was a pupil of the renowned Cuban master Arturo Montoto, who performed several mural projects, among which stands between Heaven and Earth (2008), which symbolizes a call to protect the environment and is on permanent display at the headquarters Heritage civil Society, Community and Environment, in Old Havana.

From his early training participated in numerous group exhibitions in Cuba and in 2007 formed Exis Project, with four artists who followed the same vision. With them present numerous exhibits of figurative paintings, among which stand out Good Appetite (2007), Dialogues (2008), Convergence (2008), Interior Landscape (2008), and the Merit and Illusion (2008), in different parts of Havana. Presented individually projects on several occasions inside and outside the island. In 2008 resided in the state of Veracruz, Mexico, where he established his studio and practiced teaching. Currently lives and work in the United States.